CAIRO-CYPRUS TRANSFEREE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

1. This is a limited appointment of indefinite tenure under the terms herein stated which supercedes any prior tenure you may have had with the United States Government and constitutes the entire agreement between the employee and the Government. In consideration of this appointment and the United States Government's agreement (1) to continue your employment in the service of the United States Foreign Broadcast Information Service on the Island of Cyprus, and (2) to waive any demonstration of qualifications, you agree to resolve all matters relating to, or arising out of, your employment, whether now or in the future, in accordance with the current and future regulations issued by the United States Government concerning Government positions, personnel, property, funds and other matters, and the applicable laws of the Colonial Government of the Island of Cyprus.

2. You agree to proceed to such place as may be designated for a reasonable period of training and indoctrination. If such place of training and indoctrination is other than the Island of Cyprus, you agree to subsequent assignment following satisfactory completion of such training and indoctrination to the Island of Cyprus for duty with the Foreign Broadcast Information Service monitoring station. Any accrued annual or sick leave to your credit will be carried forward in your employment under this appointment.

3. Unless separated at an earlier date for the convenience of the United States Government, you are required to remain in the service of the United States Foreign Broadcast Information Service on the Island of Cyprus at least 24 months from the date of your arrival thereat in order to be authorized return transportation to Cairo, Egypt, subject to your admissibility in accordance with the entry laws thereof, or to any country for which you hold a valid passport at such time, provided that such point is not more distant from Cyprus than Cairo, Egypt.

4. If at any time during the agreed minimum period of service, you voluntarily terminate your employment for reasons not acceptable to the United States Government, the United States Government will assume no responsibility for the cost of your return travel. If such termination is within the first year of service, the United States Government may also require you to reimburse it for the entire cost of your travel and the transportation of your immediate family and household goods to Cyprus from Cairo, Egypt.

5. Should you be separated at any time prior to the completion of the agreed minimum period of 24 months for reasons acceptable to the United States Government, not involving misconduct, you will be reimbursed by the United States Government for your expense to Cairo, Egypt, subject to your responsibility in accordance with the entry laws thereof, or to any country for which you hold a valid passport at such time, provided that such point is not more distant from Cyprus than Cairo, Egypt.

6. The cost of travel for your dependents from Cairo, Egypt to the Island of Cyprus and return, or a point not more distant therefrom, and the cost of transportation of your household goods and return will be borne by the United States Government upon your acceptance of this agreement, in accordance with the provisions contained herein.

7. The basic salary rate is paid for a 40-hour week which is standard for pay and leave purposes. The 40-hours may consist of five 8-hour days, may be distributed over six days, or other variations may be made according to the requirements of the Foreign Broadcast Information Service monitoring station on Cyprus. For work authorized in excess of 40 hours per week, overtime compensation will be paid in accordance with applicable laws of the United States Government to the extent that such are not in conflict with the applicable laws of the Colonial Government of the Island of Cyprus.

8. Annual and sick leave credits will be handled in accordance with applicable laws of the United States Government to the extent that such are not in conflict with the applicable laws of the Colonial Government of the Island of Cyprus.

9. Confirmation of your appointment is subject to satisfactory physical condition upon examination, and necessary character investigation.

10. By your signature you certify that you have read, understand and accept this agreement and that no other promises, reservations or representations except those contained herein have been made.
